

Tewksbury Public Library Policy

EXHIBITS

The Tewksbury Public Library invites local organizations and residents to submit exhibits of local, cultural, artistic, or educational interest for temporary display within the library. The library offers a variety of locations and systems for exhibiting your display.

Exhibits are arranged at the discretion of the Library Director, or designee, as space and circumstance permit. Completed applications must be received before the exhibit is approved for display. Please note, the library also uses these exhibit spaces and that the library's need for exhibit space takes precedence over public requests to use such areas.

The library makes reasonable efforts to safeguard an exhibitor's work, but is not responsible for loss of or damage to any piece of art or collection being exhibited. Individuals must complete an application and release form that releases the Tewksbury Public Library, the library Board of Trustees, and the Town of Tewksbury from any responsibility for loss or damage to works on display.

The fact that an organization or individual is permitted to exhibit at the library does not in any way constitute endorsement by the Tewksbury Public Library, the library Board of Trustees or the Town of Tewksbury.

Exhibits must conform to the space restrictions of the display areas provided. The library will not provide storage for the property of the exhibitor. The group or individual exhibiting is responsible for installing and removing the items for exhibit. Installation is permitted during library open hours. Exhibits will be kept on display for a maximum of 4 weeks, unless special arrangements have been made in advance.

An 8.5"x11" sign with the name of the organization or individual responsible for the display is required. If an artist wishes to sell their art, they should make contact information and price available using either a notebook, a list or a small note card with the pieces that are available. Large "for sale" signs are not allowed and will be removed. The library does not act as a sales agent for the artist. Artistic works for sale must be purchased directly from the artist.

The Tewksbury Public Library reminds potential exhibitors that the library is a public space where all people, of all ages, are welcome. Exhibits should be suitable for viewing by all ages. The Tewksbury Public Library Director and Trustees reserve the right to prohibit the display of art or artifacts that, in their estimation, are not suitable for a general audience.

To obtain an exhibit application and release form, please visit our website or call or visit the library.
